

Are We Prepared for the Coming Global Changes and a Historical Agenda Towards the Antichrist?

Sixbert SANGWA • December 05, 2024

The Antichrist, a Satanic system of deception and blasphemy, is coming. Unfortunately, many people, especially those trained in science, reject this truth as conspiracy theory while following knowledge from secret societies that validate worldly wisdom. Matthew 28:16-20 urges us to preach the Gospel until the end. Our role is to teach people to prepare for their destination when the end comes. This plan to hasten the Antichrist's rise originated from the Serpent, who aims to mark people with his seal—666. The serpent gave birth to the beast, and the beast serves him. This number is embedded in the minds of those who follow the beast. Are you ready to flee the coming wrath? We don't tell you to flee to Mars as Elon Musk is preparing to do—that's merely a distraction for humanity. He is developing robots that will supposedly conceive and bear children, costing $14,000. They have introduced deceptive gender and rights policies that dehumanize women, stripping them of their family values. Women are no longer submissive, they claim, so robots will take their place! How did we arrive here? Through the pursuit of knowledge! The devil orchestrated all of this, cultivating rebellion in women and children to destroy the family, bringing many deceptions we see today. Men will buy these robots because they desire submissive partners. These are signs of the end times. But what is the origin?

From 1776 to 1871

On May 1st, 1776, Adam Weishaupt, a Dutch professor of Jewish origin, former Jesuit (Britannica, 2023), and prominent Freemason who taught Catholic Canon law in Bavaria, founded the Illuminati after receiving a direct mission from Lucifer during an encounter with what he called an "invisible force" in a Bavarian underground chamber (Graff & Dolphin, 1998; Melanson, 2009). Along with this mission, Lucifer imparted secret knowledge of science and technology that would later give the group its name "Illuminati" (the enlightened ones) and spark the Industrial Revolution (Pokorny & Winter, 2021). This marked the beginning of significant changes in Europe, including rapid technological advancement. This period, deliberately named the "Age of Enlightenment" due to the "illumination" received from Lucifer, established new political, economic, social, and religious systems that still influence the world today—with May 1st now marked globally as International Labor Day (Adams, 1983). This transformation brought both beneficial and destructive changes that would reshape the world.

Under their mission, the Illuminati orchestrated both the American Revolution of 1776 and the French Revolution in 1789, followed by the Napoleonic Wars (Roberts, 1972). These events were calculated strategy to destabilize kingdoms and transform the political landscape from monarchies to republics under the guise of democracy, first in America and then in Europe. While Napoleon Bonaparte initially led the French Republic before declaring himself Emperor, this apparent deviation aligned with their broader plan (Mike Jay, 2014). These events were part of a broader strategy to transform monarchies (God-given authority) into republic systems using a demonic tool called "democracy" (human authority to replace divine authority), where traditional royal authority was diminished. Even in countries that maintained monarchies, like the UK and Netherlands, the power shifted to parliaments and political parties, with monarchs retaining only ceremonial roles (Sellin, 2011). After gaining control over Europe and the United States through what was presented as independence, the Illuminati and Freemasons consolidated their foundation for their ambitious plans of global domination and control (Averill Earls, 2019).

After transforming political systems across Europe, secret societies turned their attention to reshaping religious institutions. They fought against political liberation and religious freedom, viewing religion as a tool to control people through ignorance. Their goal was to lead and syncretize the Catholic religion. They seized control by killing Pope Pius VI and imprisoning Pope Pius VII, which destabilized the Catholic Church (which had already been influenced by the Roman Empire). They then introduced Freemasonry philosophies into the Church—their ultimate goal being to align Catholic doctrine with Masonic philosophy, as evidenced by today's Catholic-Masonic relationship. Through these efforts, they achieved their desired unity (NewAdvent, 2023).

Between 1776 and 1871, during the Age of Enlightenment, significant changes occurred as humanist philosophy gained prominence (History.com, 2023). This period brought a new social and economic paradigm, marked by a shift from an agricultural to an industrial economy. Innovation and creativity flourished—but for a specific purpose. After Satan gave his mission to these individuals (Graff & Dolphin, 1998), he provided knowledge to accelerate his plans. The humanist philosophy, grounded in rationalism and science (History.com, 2023) (which represents the number of the beast, 666), spread widely, leading to the rejection of both intuition and the Holy Spirit. Since then, many people have embraced the belief that humans can achieve salvation and advancement through their own abilities. They claim there is a divine spark within humanity, making God unnecessary. Today's educated community clearly demonstrates how far this belief has spread.

As we examine the origin of the number of the beast 666, we see that it emerged during 1776-1871 when rationalism was embraced as a rejection of the seal of God (Holy Spirit). The Illuminati and Freemasons introduced this rationalism, leading people to abandon their traditional values in favor of new ideologies (Spence, 2019). This period became known as the Enlightenment because its proponents claimed to have received light from Lucifer (Roberts, 1972). Their mission involved destroying world powers to gain control, with the United States and France among the first nations to fall under their influence (Jay, 2014). This new philosophy spread through ancient gnostic education (gnosticism = Greek education) by trained individuals. As people aligned their minds with this philosophy, it became the basis for validating knowledge and intellect (Israel, 2007). Additionally, Western mysticism emerged as a new channel of communication between people and demons, alongside the rise of esoteric knowledge (Pokorny & Winter, 2021). The combination of humanism and Western mysticism worked to discredit God and His wisdom. As a result, religion has been reduced to merely a form of social connection, entertainment, or business venture for many people. In fact, humanism and Western mysticism aimed to completely alienate humanity from God by basing knowledge on so-called science and technology supported by magic (occultism) (Graff & Dolphin, 1998). After achieving this goal between 1776 and 1871, what happened in the period from 1871 to 1948?

From 1871 to 1941

During the next period, the Vienna Congress took place. The Congress of Vienna (1814-1815), organized to reorganize Europe after the Napoleonic Wars, saw the Illuminati and Freemasons fail to achieve their goal of forming a global order—mainly due to resistance from Imperial Russia (Chapman, 1998). Tsar Alexander I's plans to expand Russian influence, especially in Poland, created tensions with Austria and Prussia that prevented the congress from establishing a lasting European order (Britanica, 2024; Schroeder, 1972). Decades later, Russia experienced revolution between 1905-1917, particularly during March 8-16, 1917. This revolution stemmed from widespread discontent among peasants, laborers, and urban workers, made worse by Russia's costly involvement in World War I (Wade, 1991). After Tsar Nicholas II abdicated, Russia faced significant changes. A weak temporary government took control, allowing the Bolshevik party to seize power in October 1917 (Daniels, 1967). This October Revolution transformed Russia into the world's first socialist state. This is how the Illuminati succeeded in destabilizing Russia, which had posed a significant challenge to their global political aspirations (Front Matter, 1957).

Remember, the Czar's persistent opposition was the reason they planned three world wars in 1871 (Roberts, 1972). As noted in the Albert Pike's letter, each war had its own purpose: The First World War aimed to destroy the Russian empire and establish their communism philosophy (Wade, 1991). This oppressive communist system was designed to pit the Eastern world against Western Zionist capitalism (Daniels, 1967). Communism served to weaken Christianity before their planned global communist government. After successfully weakening Christianity in Russia, they gradually diminished it in Europe and the US, culminating in the establishment of the Federal Council of Churches in 1907 (Britanica, 2024). The Second World War (1939-1944) focused on establishing the United Nations as a prototype for their envisioned global government (Hebert, 2009) and re-establishing the nation of Israel—which would become the flashpoint for the third world war (Chapman, 1998). The division of the Temple Mount between Muslims and Jews, the construction of the Al-Aqsa Mosque and Dome of the Rock on the same site, and the creation of intertwined borders were strategically planned to trigger future global conflicts (Jay, 2014). Finally, the planned third world war aims to establish their long-envisioned global government—the New World Order, or in biblical terms, the kingdom of Antichrist—which is emerging under various names like globalization, Great Reset, New Global Order, Multinational Cooperation, and global stakeholder cooperation, among others (Spence, 2019).

During this period, Africa was also drawn into global politics. The colonization wasn't easy due to Africa's hot climate, malaria, and accessibility challenges (Curtin, 1961). The colonizers began with coastal regions, particularly in West Africa where Portuguese established trading posts in present-day Ghana (Gold Coast) and Nigeria as early as the 15th century, followed by British settlements in Sierra Leone and French presence in Senegal (Rodney, 1966). The Dutch established the Cape Colony in South Africa in 1652 (Elphick, 1977). Through the Berlin Conference (1884-1885), they divided Africa for colonization, aiming to control the entire world (Wesseling, 1981). It costed them a middle period of civilization training Africans in Roman philosophy and culture for better control (Comaroff & Comaroff, 1989). They established education systems across Africa, which many Africans attended.

From 1948 to 2024

From 1948 until 2024, what has been the plan? After the UN's foundation as a pro-global government, numerous initiatives emerged to accelerate their New World Order—the Kingdom of the Antichrist (Hebert, 2009). The strategy included granting nominal independence to many countries, making them UN members as part of a pilot global control project (Wesseling, 1981). After establishing the UN, they prompted African nations to seek independence prematurely, despite these nations' lack of preparation (Comaroff & Comaroff, 1989). This served as a strategy to bring them under the UN's global control system. In the aftermath of this hasty independence, they orchestrated coups across many African countries to maintain control through division (Elphick, 1977; see also Wikipedia), contributing to Africa's ongoing challenges. They promoted regional conflicts to facilitate their control and resource accumulation (Rodney, 1966), using various terms like "revolution" and "liberation" as motivators—though all were funded by the same source. This period also saw the emergence of human-engineered diseases and controversial vaccination programs, climate control and weather manipulation (Spence, 2019).

From 2025 onward

Another critical phase is approaching with a new era set to begin in 2025. As previously discussed in numerous articles, 2025 is expected to begin with a "great general assembly of demons" that will approve global turmoil to usher in a new era (Sangwa, 2024). While "Project 2025" is often discussed in the context of the United States (Aclu, 2024), it represents a global shift that will begin there. This "post-constitutional era" is expected to introduce a new global communist system under a one-world government(Associated Press, 2024). This new political era would reportedly abandon national constitutions in favor of UN policies and regulations, potentially eroding human freedoms (Mascaro, 2023). The project is set to begin in the United States before spreading globally—a plan widely known as "Project 2025." Under this system, national constitutions and sovereignty would be dismantled.

Unlike the 18th century's era of creativity and innovation, we are now entering the age of Artificial Intelligence and transhumanism—what Harari \(2016\) refers to as the era of "Homo-Deus." By 2026, manufacturers may introduce female robots programmed for submission that can conceive and give birth to children (Esposito, 2024; Carros, 2024, 2024; Ancel, 2024). This development follows decades of misleading women about their rights, with the hidden agenda of destroying the family unit, as discussed by Anderson \(2023\). These influences have deliberately worked to erode women's traditional family values through the spread of rebellious ideologies. Thompson \(2022\) argues that feminism has resulted in domestic conflicts, divorces, rebellion, and ultimately, alienation from God—leading to eternal death. Does Satan love women and children? Let the wise consider this question! Having undermined traditional family values, they now propose replacing "unsubmissive" women with robots that can supposedly conceive and give birth—a disturbing transformation of human society, as warned by Mitchell & Davis \(2023\). The future may also bring major economic downturns, global conflict (third world war), more engineered diseases, and climate-related disasters, according to Ferguson \(2024\). How prepared are you to escape? While these prophetic events must unfold, we have one refuge: Jesus, who will rapture His Church to protect them from the coming wrath!
